Who Are We? – Part 2

Sunday March 15, Midday

We met in early February to discuss who we are as a congregation, and to consider plans and projects for the future. It was such a rich discussion that we are planning a

Elimu Charity Event

Thursday March 19, 10am-1pm

To make her 60th birthday more meaningful, Jane Bennett is raising funds for the Elimu charity. There will be stalls with jewellery, cards, accessories, prints and canvasses, personal care and well-being products and a wonderful raffle (all prizes donated). Elimu provides impoverished children in Kenya with access to scarce educational resources and support to help them escape the poverty cycle. All the revenue on the door and for the raffle goes to the charity as well as a contribution from all the stall-holders. £5 entry includes teas, coffees and cake. Do come along and bring your friends.

The Meeting House, 10am-1pm

Heart and Soul

Friday March 27, 7pm

Heart and Soul is our new, alternative spiritual gathering with music, silence, words and prayers and a chance to explore the evening's theme in relation to your own life. Refreshments will follow. All are welcome – a sign-up sheet is at the Meeting House.

May

Arts at the Intersection

Sunday May 31, 3pm

Please put a marker in your diaries for a new 'Arts at the Intersection' event, to be held at the Meeting House as part of our new outreach collaborations. Bringing together several groups, including Sevenoaks Welcomes Refugees, this is a launch event and concert for an inclusive approach to the arts and social justice.
